

Chamber and Jazz

Two new concert series at
Church of the Ascension

Archville Chamber Series

September Song—September 11 at 7pm
Members of the Ottawa Chamber Players perform an evocative autumn program.

Battle of Britain—October 16 at 7pm
Five brass players unite to present moving music with powerful perspectives. Featuring members of the Ottawa Chamber Players.

Harmonic Generation—December 4 at 7pm (plus concert)
An evening of Christmas choral music with a special festive touch; last year's show was a sellout!

Christan Paquette/Fred Lacroix—March 12 at 7pm
Flutist Christian Paquette and pianist Fred Lacroix are veterans of Chamberfest and the NAC's 4th Stage.

Tetrapod—April 9 at 7pm
What has four legs and forms a wicked chamber ensemble? Virtuoso musicians Adam Reid and Risa Tonita, of course.

Rideau Lakes Orchestra—May 14 at 7pm (plus concert)
An eclectic program of classical and quasi-classical music, with something for everyone.

Ascension Jazz Series

The Canto Trio—September 25 at 7pm
Veteran jazz artists Peter Woods, Devon Woods, and H el ene Knoerr are a formidable combo.

Wedding and Funeral Trio—November 27 at 7pm
Folk melodies of the Balkans, do you take klezmer/-free jazz? We do. With Linsey Wellman, Joe Hincke, and Mike Essoudry.

Betty Ann Bryanton & Friends—January 29 at 7pm
An award-winning artist known for her charismatic stage presence and her clear, warm voice.

Julie Kevan/Peter Browne—February 26 at 7pm
House concert favourites perform jazz classics, Broadway, old-time country, and even current hits.

Evensong Ensemble—April 30 at 7 pm (Plus Concert)
Variations on the theme Open Hearts/Open Minds: Peter Woods, James McGowan and friends perform songs from the hymnody.

Church of the Ascension Jazz and Chamber Concert Series 2016-17

Sunday evenings this fall, Church of the Ascension will give over its Sanctuary to bring two new concert series to Old Ottawa East: The Archville Chamber Music Series, and the Ascension Jazz Series. Both series will showcase established and rising stars, for a low price that includes an artists' reception after the show.

The parish takes great pleasure in welcoming the community to enjoy our beautiful worship space. Funds raised will go towards fair compensation for the artists, and to support music at the church. Ascension's music director, Adam Reid, hopes in particular to "engage and inspire youth: part of the money raised will help provide resources for young people in the congregation who have an interest in music."

To help these two fledgling concert series grow, we are offering several tiers of program sponsorship. We would love to have your support; to participate, please contact sponsorship@churchoftheascension.ca or 613-327-0197.
